Agenda

I. David

- A. Ref update - Need numbers as there is a shortage; can the refs schedule a cert class? Do we take the lead?
- B. Can we use Columbia as a central location for matches? Callie/Kelly need the heads up to plan it.
- C. SERRS needs a better communication plan as too many are not getting responses about reffing.
- D. Events are becoming cost prohibitive due to ref costs.
- E. Michel'le Bennett (mich.m.bennett@gmail.com) is the new secretary of SERRS
- F. Scott to send list of Raleigh students to Kelly (Done)

- IV. Select 7's update (JK)
 - A. Cayman tournament
 - 1. Logistics are all set
 - 2. Tour will cost approx half of the LA7s
- V. Division Director Updates
 - A. Callie
 - 1. All going well. Some teams are hurting for numbers.
 - B. Andy
 - 1. First match just happened; 1 needs to be rescheduled
 - C. Matt
 - 1. Savannah - Not happy w cancellations.
 - 2. Charleston - not compliant in week 1. Issue with match cancellation vs Savannah.
 - D. Allen
 - 1. Charleston v Barbarians - Charleston coaching staff did not follow rules of technical zone. It was agreed that the coaches could roam, but not players. Chirping started which escalated. Referee should be the one in control, but needs to be informed. Touch judge took abuse by Charleston. Is there a ref report? Colville being reviewed by Dolski (sp). Mike W to follow up w Nigel/John.
 - 2. Johnson City v Asheville - Told by ref that they would not be allowed subs as per D3 Silver rule. Miscommunication about the variations in the rules.
 - E. Paige
 - 1. Focus on building numbers. Forfeits are still happening with 7s or 10s.
 - 2. Rucktoberfest rescheduled to Nov 12/13. All but Clemson are able to make it.

Meeting adjourned at 9:27

Next meeting to be scheduled Nov 7, 8pm
